

Photography, Filming, Interviews, and Disclosure for Private Use by Individuals

The Takimoto Group does not require an application for photographing, filming and interviewing, for personal use (no financial gain, actual or anticipated). Please comply with the following rules. If you do not comply, we may refuse to allow these activities and/or request deletion of the unpublished or published content.

【Rules】

1. It is prohibited to take photographs/filming in The Grand (public) Bath (both indoor and open-air baths) and dressing rooms.
2. When photographing your guest room, dining venue, or other public space, please be considerate of the reflection of other guests. If you need to publish a photo that reflects another customer, please crop or blur it so that it cannot be used to identify an individual.
3. Please refrain from taking photographs without express permission from the staff, or using photos with faces that can be used to identify individuals or posting text.
4. Takimoto Group does not check the publication of the contents of photographs and interviews for private use before publication. If there is an error in the content or other disadvantages to Takimoto Group, we reserve the right to request amendment or deletion of the publication. In addition, if there is damage, we will claim compensation.
5. For live streaming and filming using equipment, please check "Filming for Commercial Use" and submit an interview application form.
6. Please refrain from using drones to take photographs, whether inside or outside the facility. For photography outside the Takimoto Group, please consult with the Hokkaido Regional Environment Office as it is a designated National Park and by-laws are enforceable.
7. Photography in the facility is limited to those who use the facility for overnight stays and day trips. (Please refrain from visiting only for photography)
8. The hotel will not be involved in any disputes between customers due to photography.
9. Please note that we do not individually grant permission for video distribution or check or respond to individual customers regarding video content.
